

DISTINCTIVE AND DIVERSE, WASHINGTON AVAs

RED MOUNTAIN

At 2,382 acres, Red Mountain is Washington's smallest and typically its warmest appellation, where growing season daytime temperatures average 90 degrees and only 5 inches (127 mm) of rain fall each year. It is dedicated almost exclusively to red wine grapes and produces some of the state's most sought-after grapes.

5in
Average

Cabernet
Sauvignon
Syrah
Merlot

2,382
ACRES 964 HECTARES

DESIGNATED: 2001

Source: WA State Wine Commission "Wine 101" ©2020 Aquilini Wines, Benton, City, WA. All rights reserved. GEN-902211